Dustin,

Based on the August 2 FRN publication date, the 45-day public comment period would close Friday, September 16. This is the date I will use when the date is required in the web pages. Agree/Confirm?

Hey Dustin,

So Matt said the official pub date of the FRN is 8-2-2016; public inspection date is Monday, 8-1. Matt said let's post everything on the public inspection date. As soon as you get the final text back from the lawyers on the CFP, please pass it along so I can populate the web pages. He said the 45-day period should start from the official posting date of 8-2-2016.

Sara,

Matt just forwarded me the email you were talking about yesterday. It says the PQC FRN will be up for inspection on Monday, Aug 1, and published on Tues, Aug 2. So does the webpage need to be up on Monday? or just Tuesday?

Dustin
