Hi Dustin --

I'm at UMD today, but will be at NIST tomorrow. Tomorrow there is an "ITL Standards Training" session and I'm planning to attend the first two hours (9-11am). I'm free after that. (But don't feel that you need to schedule around me -- I'm mainly listening & learning at this point.)

I'm here. (I was actually going to meet with Yi-Kai and others about the new quantum lattice attack at 10am tomorrow, but that preprint seems to be in the process of getting withdrawn anyway so we'll hold off on that).

Subject: Meet today or tomorrow

Everyone,

There has been much discussion on the pqc-forum about our target security strengths. I would like to have a meeting to discuss this. The Federal Register Notice could come at any time, so we really don't have much time to make many changes. Can you quickly respond back if you are around today? If enough people are around, we will meet. If not, I will schedule a meeting for tomorrow at 10am. Thanks,

Dustin
