Okay.

Also, there is a problem with our certificates at email.nist.gov per Chrome; who do we complain to so this gets fixed? It's a little embarrassing even if it may not actually be a security threat.

Jacob,

Here's a link to the archive for viewing the past pqc-forum messages:

Also, Ray told me you'd like to possibly add in some text to the CFP to try and clarify what we're talking about with KEMs. Feel free to do so. The CFP is attached. Thanks,

Dustin
