Yes, we reached out to the lawyers earlier this week. After some discussion, it would be premature to send them a copy of the draft FRN for review, but we're trying to set up a meeting with them to go over the main points. We think that will speed up the review process.

As you may have noticed, I'm out on vacation this week. I haven't seen anything back from the lawyers yet, but this will be one of the first things I work on when I get back on Monday.

Andy,

I was just checking to see if you were able to get Matt or Donna to start the FRN process going?

Thanks,
