Yes, we have the CFP as a printable PDF document also (there is a link at the bottom of each html page related to the CFP). I don't have a preference at all. I think I'm going to keep them consistent with the full document.

Do we have the CFP as one entire document? In that document, it should be footnotes 1-7. Then, I guess if we break up the CFP into it's various parts (as we've done), it might be simplest to just keep the footnotes numbered the same as they are in the CFP. But if you have a preference to re-number for each html page, I don't have a problem with that.

Dustin,

The changes from the lawyers have been incorporated into the html files. I have a question regarding all the footnotes. Do you want me to keep the footnote numbering consistent with the CFP (as a whole)?

Section 2 – Footnote 1

Section 4 – Footnoes 2-7 (should these remain numbered that way for consistency; or be 1-6 since they are the only ones on that html page)

Sara,

The NIST counsel's office sent us a few changes. They are marked in the attached file (final CFP 4.8 tracked changes). I also included a version (final CFP 4.8) without the tracked changes. I accept all their suggestions, so go ahead and make these final few changes.

I haven't heard from Andy if we can post today or tomorrow yet. So hold off posting until we hear.

Thanks!

Dustin
