I think it will work. I have a NIST phone. We can get together in the dorm lounge.

Subject: Next week's meeting

Okay – so I forgot about Crypto when scheduling next week's meeting. Lily, Ray, John, and Jacob will be at Crypto. Larry and I will be at NIST. I don't want to wait until after CRYPTO, as we need to give ourselves enough time, so I'd still like to meet next week on Tuesday, and we can do a conference call, or a google hangout. Looking at Crypto's schedule, breakfast is from 7:30-9am, and then talks start.

Ray says 7am is fine for him, but I worry that is too early? John/Jacob is 7am okay, or would a slightly later time in the morning be better? Let me know. Thanks,

Dustin
