I didn't get a warning. I realized right after sending it I'd sent it to the wrong email address. But I didn't want to send it again.

I did think it odd that I didn't get a warning email, since that's what is apparently supposed to happen.

When you sent this out – did you get an alert that it should be sent to pgc-forum@list.nist.gov? I noticed it does not show up in the archives.

If you are planning on submitting to the NIST PQC standardization process, remember that the final deadline for submissions is November 30th, which is in less than 2 weeks. Submissions received after that date will NOT be considered. For full submission details and requirements, see www.nist.gov/pqcrypto

If you have general questions about submitting, this may be discussed on the forum. More specific questions may be sent to us at pgc-comments@nist.gov.
