If it is 9:00 am, I can make it. I should excuse myself when my proposal is discussed ;>). Other than that, it should be fine. I will talk with Andy.

Subject: Quantum conference

Lily and Andy,

I have a call scheduled for tomorrow morning at 9 am talk with ETSI and folks about a fall workshop in quantum. Lily proposed a talk and it looks good to me. My problem is that ODNI set up a meeting yesterday on encryption and lawful access from 9 to 12 tomorrow. I am wondering if one of you could participate on the quantum workshop call. There are some abstracts that we just got today. They are pretty short but I don't think you would have to go through them for tomorrow.

Sorry for the last minute ask,

Donna
