Sorry, just got approved recently and hadn't added it. It's on there now. I had mentioned it a couple of weeks ago, but didn't have final approval yet. I can check some of the packages the week of the 11th. I suggested Jacob just let me know which ones he wanted me to check that week. You can make assignments as necessary. Just have a list for me as soon as possible.

Okay. Looking at Larry's calendar I don't see any extended absence. Something I'm missing?

So keep that in mind regarding assigning relatively little technical review stuff
