Thanks, Lily! I removed the mention of "discrete log," as it is not the right term, as you noted.

I think it's still ok to talk about the submission deadline, since the FY17 report can also describe activities that continue in FY18.

I didn't want to mention how many proposals were deemed "complete and proper," because many people will not know what that means, and I didn't want to explain exactly how a proposal could be so bad that it should be rejected immediately.

I will submit the final version now...

Cheers, and have a good holiday!

Hi, Yi-Kai,

It looks fine to me. Just some minor comments as attached. Please notice that the report is for FY17 (Oct.1st 2016 - Sept. 30th, 2017) not calendar year 2017. However, not many people took that seriously. Therefore, it is up to you whether to include submissions in the report.

Lily

Hi everyone,

I wrote a short summary of the PQC project, for the ACMD annual report. What do you think? Let me know if you have any comments or suggestions, and I will try to incorporate them into the final version, and submit it on Friday.

Thanks very much!
