Ok, attempt made to share on Drive

folder is "stuff"

Don't know when we'll present; sometime in the next 6 weeks or so, I suppose

When are we presenting? I am in Chile until the 23rd. I may not have access to the submissions. Can you put them on Google drive and share with (b) (6)?

Let me know.

René.

My thought was that we would have slides covering all material as objectively as possible

Then we could have a slide or two each, for each of our opinions/whys (we could do this blind, if we like -- commit to no changes after we decommit opinion slides =>))

Want to meet to start discussing how to put this together?

When is good?
