Justin,

Also, there must be more messages that are not showing up on the archive. I had a posting on 9/27/2017 titled "Large Submission Files". It is not on the archive. Just wanted to let you know.

You're right, that one is not showing up. The archive did get refreshed, but that one is missing, I'm looking at why.

Hey Justin,

Sorry to be a pain, but I'm still not seeing this message show up – which was originally sent to @nist.gov (not @list.nist.gov). Did the archive get refreshed?

Yes, that's right, those emails are now in pqc-forum@list.nist.gov, you can view them here: <https://groups.google.com/a/list.nist.gov/forum/#!forum/pqc-forum>

Subject: RE: pqc-forum google group question

So is it safe to assume that a message sent to pqc-forum@nist.gov will not go to the group now? Only if it's resent to @list.nist.gov?

Can a refresh be done on the archives so that the message sent from Dustin Moody on 11/17/2017 will be in the archives?

Thanks,
Sara

Hi Sara,

Zak just set that, so if you try it again you'll get a redirect message.

Subject: pqc-forum google group question

Hey Justin,

On Friday, the list owner inadvertently sent an email to ppc-forum@nist.gov (not list.nist.gov) and didn't receive any type of warning to resend to the new address. I thought that was supposed to happen? Also, because it went to @nist.gov; it did not end up in the archives.

Just trying to work through the glitches as they happen. Our deadline for submissions to this project is November 30 and we foresee more than usual traffic.

Thanks,
Sara
